BURGLES SHOT BY A LADY.—A night or two ago, the premises of a well known citizen were, in his absence, visited by a burglar. In the morning traces of blood in the yard were discovered in the direction the fellow took, proving that one and perhaps both of the shots had taken effect.

Send in your subscription lists at once for the State Sentinel. The State Sentinel, being able conducted, and centrally located, should be in the hands of every one who has the interest of his country at heart, and who desires to see the progress of the home and integrity of our State and Nation. We publish its prospectus in another column and hope the Democracy of Jennings will see to it that the Sentinel is in the hands of every Democrat in the county.—(Jennings Democrat.)

Edwin Adams won new laurels last night. He must have been proud, too, of the splendid testimonial the thronged audience offered of the public appreciation of his eminent services. He is one of the great actors, not one of the great humbugs manufactured by newspaper puffery. We have such occasionally along this way, and therefore we are the better enabled to estimate, and applaud true genius and artistic cultivation. The contrast surprises and delights us, and our homage is involuntary and unbounded. To night "The Heretic" will be repeated.

A SUPERIOR REMEDY.—We can conscientiously recommend to those suffering from a distressing cough, Dr. Strickland's Mellin's Compound Balm. It gives relief almost instantaneous, and is without any disagreeable to the taste. There is no doubt but the Mellin's Compound Balm is one of the best preparations in use, and is all that its proprietors claim for it. We have tried it during the past week, and found relief from a most distressing cough. It is prepared by Dr. Strickland, No. 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio.—(Cincinnati National Union.)

From Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 5.—Parley's appeal to be included in setting fire to the steamer Taylor, has been rejected.

The military authorities arrested John Clark of Louisville, Augustus Ortel, S. H. Sloan and wife of St. Louis, and two males, Delia Hatfield and Fanny Reed, their decesses, who have been a long time engaged in running slaves from and kidnapping negroes in Missouri and selling them here as slaves.

The Court of Inquiry in the Griddens and McCook case is still in session. The proceedings are not allowed to be made public until adjournment.

On Friday of last week 1600 of our cavalry under Col. Lane, of the 11th Kentucky, had a skirmish with the rebels under Gen. Jones, on the Virginia road, 13 miles from Cumberland Gap. The fight lasted three hours. We held our position until dusk, although attacked by superior numbers, and then withdrew to our camp, three miles in the rear.

At sunrise on Saturday morning they advanced in line of battle, 4,000 strong, with three guns, and Col. Lane fell back three miles, skirmishing all the way, when the enemy came following, and I encamped three miles from Cumberland Gap.

On Sunday morning Lane had a lively skirmish with the enemy, twice charging them, and driving them back with heavy loss, since which the rebels have not appeared in force in our front.

Our loss in these skirmishes was five killed, eight wounded and three missing. The enemy's loss was ten killed and from fifteen to twenty five wounded.

Since the skirmish with the above slight demonstrations were made on the Jacksonboro and Taylor roads. All is quiet now.

Nothing definite has been received recently from Knoxville.

From New York.

NEW YORK, February 5.—A Washington dispatch last evening, to the Philadelphia Ledger, says:

Rumors are current that a combined attack by the fleet under Farragut and some 4,000 troops, by way of Pascagoula, was made upon Mobile last Saturday. If this be so, we should hear of it through the Richmond papers by day.

A Washington special dispatch to the Post says:

The House Committee on Military Affairs will probably agree to exempt Quakers from the draft.

The Committee on Ways and Means have agreed to the Senate bill increasing the pay of Inspectors of Customs $1 a day. Mr. Chase recommends the bill.

The Senate Military Committee this morning took up the bill renewing the rank of Lieutenant General, and recommending Gen. Grant for the position. Mr. Washburne of Illinois was before the committee.

They will probably agree to the House bill.

The select committee on emigration are maturing a very important bill to encourage immigration to the country. Emigrants will receive pecuniary aid.

The cabinet Flimbeau, from off Charleston on the night of the 1st, has arrived here, and reports Gen. Gillmore keeping up slow but regular firing on Charleston, averaging three shells every five minutes.

The rebels mounted 5 guns in Sumter, piled up sand bags and cut a ravine through the rubbish.

Gen. Gillmore keeps good surveillance over it though the garrison is enabled to do but little.

The attempt to raise the Weekhewen will probably prove a failure.

Christian does not yet show many marks of our fire.

Southern News.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Richmond Sentinel of Monday says:

Commissioner Ould lately visited City Point, but found no one authorized to make arrangements with him in regard to the exchange of prisoners.

MOBILE, Jan. 30.—A dispatch from Oklawaha says: The 12th Mississippi regiment entered Oklawaha this morning and captured a quantity of arms, &c. The Yankees left as they entered the place.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 30.—The bombardment of Sumter ceased at dark last night, 150 shells having been thrown, of which 129 struck. Firing was resumed this morning.

The Big staff was shot down yesterday, but was soon replaced.

Only three persons have been wounded since the firing recommenced.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 31.—The enemy keep up the bombardment of Sumter by day, but cease at night. No damage of consequence done to the fort.

The Legislature of Virginia, at Alexandria, has indefinitely postponed the election of an United States Senator, in place of Mr. Dowden, deceased.

Colorado Legislature.

DENVER CITY, February 5.—The Legislature organized at Golden City on Tuesday. The Governor's Message shows that Colorado is out of debt, that the relations with the Indian tribes are satisfactory, that the mines have quadrupled in value the past year, and agriculture increasing rapidly. Should Colorado not succeed in getting the Pacific Railroad through the entire extent of the territory, east to west, the Governor urges that the energies of the territory be brought to bear in the co operation with branches from Kansas City and Atchison, for their extension through a part of the territory. The Message closes with an eminently patriotic allusion to Federal affairs.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 5.—A tremendous mass meeting was held here last night for the purpose of protesting against the repeal by the Legislature of the specific contract act.

This act provides for enforcing payment of debts in gold when persons contract so to do, and laborers can collect their wages in gold if employers agree to accept them.

The meeting was composed mainly of working men, who fear they will be paid in greenbacks should the repeal take place. Several gentlemen who favored the repeal attempted to address the meeting but were hoisted down.

THIRTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, February 5.

The Senate was not in session to-day.

HOUSE.

The House refused to adjourn till Monday, and proceeded to vote on Holmes' motion to table the resolution memorializing the confiscation act, which was disagreed to—77 to 20.

Several motions were made and voted on by yeas and nays to delay time, when an accommodation was arrived at concerning the action on the joint resolution, namely, that Messrs. Blair, of Missouri, Smith, of Kentucky, and Prayn shall speak, then a vote shall be taken.

Mr. Blair opposed the pending motion, saying it made an issue between the President and those who, as a party, supported him.

Mr. Smith of Kentucky favored the confiscation of all rebel property. We should wish this bill to pass.

Mr. Prayn of New York made a speech against secession, but claimed the privilege of insuring that the Administration should act in obedience to the Constitution.

The resolution passed: yeas, 82; noes, 74.

The joint resolution passed—yeas, 245; noes, 171, making it read that no punishment proceeding under it shall be construed as a forfeiture of estate of offender, contrary to the Federal Constitution; provided that no other punishment or proclamation shall be required than that made by the President on the 21st of July, '62, which shall be received and held sufficient in all cases now pending and that may hereafter arise under said act.

The House then adjourned until Monday.
